

Project & Construction Management

Control, coordination, and accountability from planning through closeout

Cantos Inc. supports owners with structured project and construction management grounded in documentation, field expertise, and regulatory compliance. Our teams ensure coordination, transparency, and control from planning through completion.

Project Management

Structured control of project information, documentation, and processes.

Services

- Document management and control
- Review and approval coordination
- Change control and audit trail management
- QA/QC and process improvement
- Document retrieval and distribution
- Office engineering support

Construction Management

On-site oversight and inspection to ensure quality, safety, and compliance.

Services

- Construction inspection and management
- Resident engineering and progress reporting
- Site safety and OSHA compliance
- CPM scheduling and cost estimating
- Claims review and project closeout
- As-built drawings and constructability reviews
- Design standards and codes review
- Design/build project support

At a Glance:

What it is:

Integrated project and construction management services supporting owners through all project phases.

What you get:

Clear documentation, disciplined oversight, and on-site management to keep projects on time and on budget.

What it supports:

Pre-planning, design, construction, compliance, and project closeout.

Contact Us

 Contact@cantos.ai

 (646) 256 - 8602

  @CantosInc